

Portraiture

A Level Photography

What is Portraiture?

What is Portraiture?

- Portrait Photography is one of most common forms of photography.
- Portrait photography, which is also called, more often than not, portraiture, is the art of capturing a subject (in this case, a person or a group of people) in which the face, facial features as well as facial expressions are made predominant.
- Portrait photography or portraiture in photography is a photograph of a person or group of people that captures the personality of the subject by using effective lighting, backdrops, and poses.

Steve McCurry

- Steve McCurry is famous for his photo 'Afghan girl,' taken in a refugee camp in Peshawar, Pakistan. This photo was named the most recognized photo of National Geographic. His other less famous photos are really worth a look!

Lee Jeffries

- His collection of black and white portraits of homeless people is unique and stunning. He depicts a glimpse of hope in the eyes of his subjects. Simply touching...

Manny Librodo

The 'Photoshop wizard'
Manny Librodo's photos don't just tell a story, they are pure works of art.

David Bailey

Cindy Sherman

Richard Avedon

Sally Mann

Sally Mann

Venetia Dearden

Nicholas Nixon

Richard Billingham

Jo Spence

Brno Del Zou

Julian Wolkenstein

Brock Elbank

Dorothea Lange

Cecil Beaton

Diane Arbus

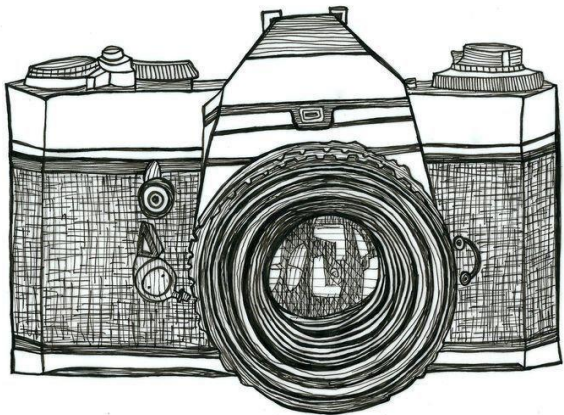

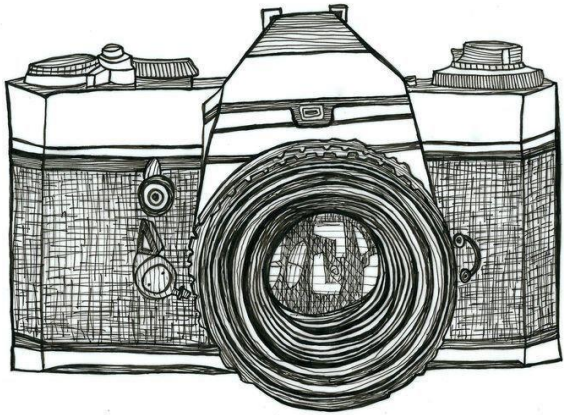

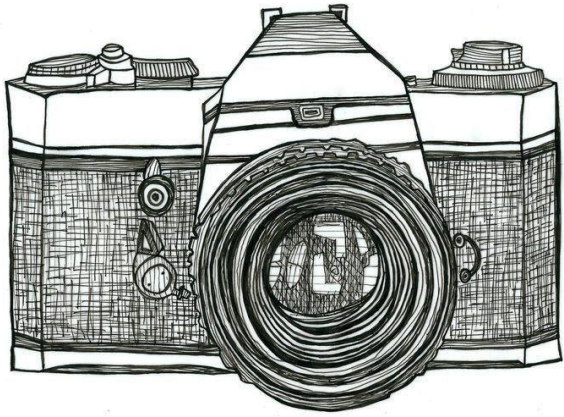

Annie Leibovitz

Herb Ritts

Task...Task...Task...Task...Task...

Task 1:
Create a new Sketchbook with the title...
PORTRAITURE

Task 3: Create a visual mind map that shows lots of different possible ideas.

Task 2:
Create a MindMap containing all the key words that you connect with the themes of portraiture including any names of photographers that you have learnt or already know.